

A photograph of a simple stone altar made of a single rectangular block, standing in front of a rustic stone wall. The ground is dirt and gravel. The word "ALTARS" is overlaid in large, bold, yellow capital letters.

ALTARS

"I lay down my life"

Gravity and Me

ALTARS

Today

Scenes from the Revolution

1 Thessalonians 4:3-8

ALTARS

>Scene 1 > Rally cries of the Garden Revolution

A L T A R S

Rally cries of the Garden Revolution

“Did God really say?”

“You will be like God!”

A L T A R S

Outcomes of the Garden Revolution

- All bent toward rebellion against God
- All insistent on personal autonomy
- God's most significant mandates marred

A L T A R S

God's most significant mandates

- A man, a woman, bound for life.
- Children, secure in parents' life bonds.
- Generations proceeding from the above.
- The story of God's love told here.

A L T A R S

>Scene II: Fast Forward - Mandates of the Sexual Revolution

ALTARS

-A brief history of the Sexual Revolution

A L T A R S

Outcomes of the Sexual Revolution (Even in the Church)

A L T A R S

>Reinforcing the nature of reality

A Christian's call to restraint

1 Thessalonians 4:3-8

A L T A R S

God's Will:

ALTARS

Your Body:

ALTARS

Your Community:

ALTARS

Your Accountability:

ALTARS

A revolutionary return to reality:
Our Bodies Tell God's Story

A L T A R S