A STUDY OF MARK'S GOSPEL

CHAPTER 2

When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home. 2 Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside.

12 And the man stepped forward, and walked out through the back door. They were all on their hands and knees, praising God and saying, "We have seen and heard today amazing things." 13 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. For from now on I am sending you out to preach the gospel in every town and village. 14 And when you have preached, tell the people to repent. 15 And the man stepped forward, and walked out through the back door. They were all on their hands and knees, praising God and saying, "We have seen and heard today amazing things." 16 But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees and the Sadducees saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with such scoundrels?" 17 When Jesus heard this, he told them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor, but I need to come to call sinners. I will not be here for the righteous, but for the sinners."

When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home. 2 Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside.

12 And the people pressed in on him from all sides, so that he could not even move. 13 Then Jesus said to them, "The Sabbath was made to meet the needs of people, and not people to meet the requirements of the Sabbath." 14 So the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath! When Jesus returned to Capernaum, the news spread that he was back home. 2 Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside. 3 And he could not even move because of the crowd. 4 So Jesus said to his disciples, "There are only a few people here who are clean. Follow me, and I will send them to the tax collector's booth. 'Follow me,' he will say to the tax collector, 'and I will go with you to your booth. And I will pay the tax for you and you will go to your booth.' 'Follow me,' he will say to the tax collector, 'and I will go with you to your booth. And I will pay the tax for you and you will go to your booth.'"

15 Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus' followers.) 16 But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with such scoundrels?" 17 When Jesus heard this, he told them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor. I have come to call sinners."
