A photograph of a simple stone altar made of rectangular blocks, standing in front of a rough stone wall. The ground is dirt and gravel. The word "ALTARS" is overlaid in large, bold, yellow letters.

ALTARS

"I lay down my life"

Altar - a place of slaughter, offering, and worship to a god or idol, generally erected in conspicuous places.

Romans 1:18-23

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship.

- Romans 12:1
